

Dear FCC,

I would like to request that you do not approve any weakening of the no call list. I live in a rural area of wisconsin and have firsthand experience in this matter. Before the no call list I received a flood of telemarketing calls to the extent that my phone service was useless. Please keep the current no call list regulations. Thank You.

Richard Feutz